LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

(e.) To buy, sell, prepare for market, manipulate, import, export, and deal in timber, lumber, railroad-ties, piling, telegraph and telephone poles, fence-posts, and to acquire, own, and operate logging camps and mills for the manufacturing of lumber and timber of all kinds:

(f.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and to undertake and carry on the whole or any part of any undertaking or business now existing or at any time in the future to come into existence, together with property, liabilities, assets, and engagements thereof, whether a going concern or otherwise, and to pay as consideration for the same either in cash or in shares of this Company, or partly in cash and partly in shares, or to allot the whole or any part of the capital stock of the Company, credited as fully or partly paid up, as the whole or part of the purchase price, or with and (or) debentures and (or) other negotiable or transferable securities:

(g.) To sell or dispose of the whole or any part of the undertaking, land, property, assets, estate, or effects of the Company or any part thereof from time to time for such consideration and upon such terms as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company, and to divide such shares, debentures, or securities among the members of the Company in specie, or to distribute all or any of the property of the Company amongst its members in specie:

(h.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to use, grant licences or rights in respect of, or otherwise turn to account any patents, patent rights, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention or process which may seem capable of being used for or in connection with any of the purposes of the Company, or which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(i.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary and convenient for the purpose of its business:

(j.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government or any public authority that may seem conducive to any of the Company's objects, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any concessions, grants, rights, powers, and privileges whatsoever which may seem to the Company capable of being turned to account, and to work, develop, exercise, and turn to account the same:

(k.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and as consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks, or obligations of this Company:

(l.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contract of, or otherwise assist any such person or company or any customer, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(m.) To acquire, hold, alienate, convey, mortgage, or hypothecate any real estate for its own use, accommodation, or by way of security or investment:

(n.) To borrow, raise, or secure payment of money in such manner and form as the Company may think fit, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock charged upon all or any of the Company's property, present or future, or both, including uncalled capital, and redeem or pay off the same:

(o.) To make, draw, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(p.) To lend money either with or without security and generally to such persons, including directors and members of the Company, and upon such terms and conditions as the Company may think fit:

(q.) To invest and deal with any of the moneys of the Company upon such securities, including the taking or acquiring by purchase or otherwise of shares fully or partly paid up in any other corporation, in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(r.) To pay for any property that may be acquired by the Company, either in cash or in fully paid-up shares of the Company, or partly in cash or partly in such fully paid-up shares:

(s.) To create, issue, make, draw, accept, endorse, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable bonds, debentures, or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and all other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(t.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(u.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among its members in specie:

(v.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(w.) To procure the Company to be registered, established, or recognized in the Dominion of Canada or any of the Provinces thereof, or the United States of America and elsewhere abroad, and to carry on business thereunder:

(x.) To carry on any other business which may seem to this Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to render profitable or enhance the value of this Company's property or rights for the time being.
